

This game is too easy.

Sometimes

There are cards, dice and gold pieces on the table, Daareka is turning away from the table, waving her hand very dismissively.

Avoid a round of Gambling.

No, this gold was mine all along.

Sometimes

Daareka is pointing at the gold piece that is in her hand. She has a wry smile on her face.

You may play this card when you are about to lose Gold. Pick another player. They pay you 1 Gold. (You still lose Gold.)

Psionic vision

Anytime

*Daareka's eyes are glowing and she's starting toward boss mode, but unlike I don't think so, she isn't angry this time - she's inspired and meditative, like this:

Reveal the top 4 cards of your Character Deck. An opponent of your choice divides those cards into two piles. Put one pile into your hand and the other into your discard pile.

I've been known to break a mind or two...

Action

Daareka has an evil grin. She is projecting an image of a brain suspended in front of her between her hands. She is tearing the image in half.

Pick a player. They lose 2 Fortitude. If they lose Fortitude in this way, they discard a card from their hand at random.

Daareka Print and Play Rules v1.0

Thank you for downloading this P&P! The Kickstarter for The Red Dragon Inn 6: Villians is live until December 15th 2016! You can catch up on all the excitement (and pledge for a reward copy while you're at it) at the QR code to the left. The following rules are for playtesting the RDI6 character Daareka. To play this character you will need the 40 card character deck (attached to these rules)

If you have any feedback for the character, please let us know at what you think about him on the BGG forums!

Daareka thinks you will enjoy this print and play, and you do too. Daareka the Mindbreaker has been known to bend wills to her own nefarious uses.

Card Specific Clarifications:

"My friend will play this hand for me." - Do not perform any of the discarded cards effects when resolving this card. It is simply lost. Players must respond to this card with Anti-Cheating cards before the Daareka player looks at a hand.

"I've been known to break a mind or two..." - The discard effect is part of the resolution of this card. Specifically, if you have a hit-back card in your hand when you Fortitude to this card, you may not play it until after the random discard effect (which may discard your hit-back!).

"I think you should reconsider." - You cannot use this card to negate a Gizmo or Minion that's already in play, but can negate one as it's being played as an action. If Daareka negates an action that came from a Prayer/Totem Combo/etc., then that player still gets to draw and play another Action this turn.

This card can only be affected by I don't think so!

Tip the Wench.

Anytime

Pick a player. They pay 1 Gold to the Inn

What's that up your sleeve?

Cheating

Daareka has raised a brow, like are you really trying to pull this over on me? She's holding a hand of cards with one hand and both her other hand and her bang tentacle are pointing toward camera.

Take control of a Round of Gambling. Pick another player and force them to leave the Round of Gambling.

Read minds during a game? I would never...

Cheating

Daareka has ESP waves radiating out from her head. She is waving her hand dismissively, and the path of that hand is disrupting the ESP waves somewhat. Her face feigns innocence.

Take control of a Round of Gambling.

Oops, I got ink on my cards.

Cheating

Daareka is apologetic with a fist full of ink-splattered cards. The table has splats of ink as well and a few of her tentacles have become disheveled and are still dripping ink from the tips.

Take control of a Round of Gambling.

My friend will play this hand for me.

Cheating

Wizgille is sitting at the table with a hand of cards. There is gold and such on the table. Wizgille is wearing her omni-sight goggles. Daareka is standing behind her with a hand on Wizgille's shoulder. Wizgille looks kinda dazed. ESP waves are emanating around Daareka.

Pick a player and look at their hand. You may discard a Gambling or Cheating Card from it. If you do, gain control of the Round of Gambling. If you don't, it counts as though you passed.

I don't think so!

Sometimes

Daareka looks angry and is partway to her boss mode badass form.

Negate a Sometimes Card.

This card can only be affected by another I don't think so!

Stop thinking so loudly!

Action

Daareka has one hand to her temple, like she has a headache. The other hand is a fist hitting Wrench over the head. Wrench is reacting like hey, wtf?. A wrench (the tool, not the guy) and some nuts and bolts are going flying. A partially-completed gizmo is on the table in front of him.

Pick a player. They lose 2 Fortitude. If they lose Fortitude in this way, look at their hand.

Pbthbthbth! Old Gods, you startled me!

Action

Daareka is wiping down her mouth, black ink is splashed everywhere. A few of her tentacles are dripping ink as well.

Each other player loses 1 Fortitude.

Oh, don't worry, this rarely leads to permanent damage.

Action

Daareka has her hand behind Torglesnarf's head. Wispy energy is floating between her hand and his head as though she were pulling the energy out from there. Torglesnarf is looking toward camera dazed and confused.

Pick a player. They gain 2 Alcohol Content. If they gain Alcohol Content in this way, you and that player each draw a card from your Character Decks.

These aren't the coins you're looking for.

Action

Daareka is in a jedi-mind trick pose like this: <https://deliciousbass09.files.wordpress.com/2011/04/kenobi1.jpg?w=600>.

(You mind trick the others!) Each player pays you 1 Gold.

Now I'll show you why I'm called the mindbreaker!

Sometimes

Daareka has a head injury and is bleeding a bit. She is leaning forward, blasting energy from her forehead. Think Cyclops' Optic Blast but from the forehead instead of the eyes.

You may play this card immediately after you lose Fortitude from a card played by another player. You may not play this card if you reduced that Fortitude loss.

That player loses 1 Fortitude and gain 1 Alcohol Content.

Ah! I can see straight again!

Anytime

Daareka looks calm - she is massaging her temples, like she is meditating.

Lose 2 Alcohol Content.

I just had a thought!

Anytime

Daareka looks a bit excited, like in leftover loot. She has an idea. She's pointing one index finger into the air, and her bang-tentacle is similarly pointing.

Draw 2 cards from your Character Deck, then discard 1 card from your hand. You may not take any game actions in between drawing and discarding.

I think you should reconsider.

Sometimes

Daareka is staring, hypnotic-eyed outward, her head and face taking up much of the frame. Cliché hypno-background swirling around behind her.

Negate an Action Card. That player then draws a card from their Character Deck and may play another Action.

Just a simple case of mind over matter.

Sometimes

Multiple objects (tankard with ale spilling, knife, axe) are floating in the air, with wibbly energy lines around them. The same lines outline Daareka's head.

Ignore an Action, Sometimes or Anytime card that affects your Fortitude.

- OR -

Reduce the Alcohol Content of a Drink you are about to drink by 2.

Ignore an Action, Sometimes or Anytime card that affects your Fortitude, Alcohol Content or Gold. (May not be used to avoid Gambling.)

If I drink this, we'll all end up making bad decisions.

Sometimes

Daareka is holding up a drink in a pose a little like Keet's only yields piles of gold art, except that she isn't sad. She has more of a are you guys sure about this? expression on her face.

You're thirsty. Wouldn't you agree?

Sometimes

Daareka is leaning forward, handing a drink to camera. Daareka and the drink are normal, but the rest of the image is weirdly distorted with some extra magic effects.

Pass a Drink

Not now, I'm practicing.

Sometimes

Daareka is standing behind one of Torglesnarf's throne lackeys, who has a weird kind of hunk expression on his face. Daareka is doing her mindbreaking thing on him.

Avoid a round of Gambling.
